

A collage of high-end restaurant dishes. In the foreground, a large white plate features a succulent steak topped with thick slices of truffle and a dollop of white cream, accompanied by a small white bowl of red sauce. To the left, a martini glass is filled with a dark red liquid, garnished with a cherry on a wooden skewer. In the background, other plates show a lobster tail and a steak with a butter sauce. The overall aesthetic is sophisticated and gourmet.
